LEASE UPDATE!

We are pleased to say we have just signed a new lease for 2015 – 2016. This allows us to continue with the sorting of our key sites and updating of data electronically.

I'm sure you will agree this really is good news – in the meantime we are now working with Surrey Heath Museum and Bagshot Society in securing our future, as well as other local groups, at the Bagshot Library building.

We are open on Monday afternoons and Tuesday evenings carrying out practical archaeology if you would like to come along and help.

Our future is becoming more secure and your support continues to spur us on to ensure the archaeology and heritage of Surrey Heath is not lost.

Fort Cumberland

Saturday 23rd May saw us make our second trip to Fort Cumberland with the remaining slag from the centre.

We loaded the remaining slag into 4 cars and the convoy made its journey successfully to our destination!

We were met by Sarah Paynter of Historic England and as you can see from the photos deposited it safely. It was good to see the first batch still safe and sound in the casement.

Sarah hopes to start working on it soon and will liaise with Martin Millett from Cambridge University.

Spot the Difference!

The 1st load of slag joined by the 2nd load!

Some of the larger pieces and a well earned coffee thanks to Sarah

A big thank you to all who helped on the day loading up at Bagshot, driving down and unloading at Fort Cumberland.
